PASTOR'S CORNER

ANNUAL MISSION COOP SPEAKER

The weekend of August 1-2 we welcome Fr. Gracioso Charcos, MJ, a member of the Missionaries of Jesus. After his formation and ordination in the Philippines he worked as a missionary in Senegal, Africa for nine years. He is currently assigned in the newly created Sto. Nino Parish of the Diocese of Antipolo, Rizal, Philippines.

Among the major concerns the pastoral team of Sto. Nino Parish has are community building and consolidating the base communities which include the newly formed street communities and other parish ministries. They also have started the Scholarship Program intended for the very poor but deserving students, the Legal/Para-legal ministry for those who cannot afford to hire lawyers, and the Medical-Dental services for those who have no access to health care. The most difficult concern is the construction of the parish church.

Fr. Charcos will speak at all Masses August 1-2 and a second collection will be taken to support his ministry.

FESTIVAL 2009

Well... we moved the festival a few weeks earlier to avoid the August heat. By that measure the festival was a spectacular success. In other ways, it was as well. People had a good time. Parishioners came together to work on a very concrete project. Old friends got reacquainted. Some new parishioners got to put names and faces together. And we made some money. What more could you ask for?

Thanks to everyone Jim and Angel Ariss who again this year chaired the festival. Our business manager Betty Meiner, as always, played a vital role. Thanks to all who chaired booths and who supplied the countless worker hours. Thanks to maintenance man Dennis Briggs who help make sure things were put back together well. We'll get a full report to you as soon as all the bills are paid.

BREAD OF LIFE - Last Sunday in Mark's Gospel we heard Jesus disembark from the ship. If we would continue in Mark this week, we'd read the multiplication of the loaves and fish from that Gospel. Instead, the Church gives us several weeks of the "Bread of Life" discourse from John's Gospel. It begins with the multiplication of loaves from that Gospel today. I encourage you to spend a little extra time with the Gospels during the next five weeks. I recommend to your attention: "The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist: Basic Questions and Answers" (From the U.S. Bishops Conference www.usccb.org/dpp/realpresence.htm)

"Stay with us, Lord" (Pope John Paul II, www.vatican.va/holy_father/john_paul_ii/apost_letters/documents/hf_jp-ii_apl_20041008_mane-nobiscum-domine_en.html)

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

As we begin reading from the "Bread of Life" passage from John's Gospel it is appropriate to extend an invitation for you to consider becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Some may wonder why the name "Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion". Ordinary ministers are bishops, priests, and deacons. In that sense lay ministers are "extraordinary".

In another sense all ministers of Holy Communion are to be "extraordinary." We are doing far more than just "passing out Communion". We are ministering the Body and Blood of Christ. No matter if we are lay, religious, or ordained, those who minister Holy Communion are to give public witness to the ministry we exercise. The ceremony commissioning extraordinary ministers reminds them:

In this ministry, you must be examples of Christian living in faith and conduct; you must strive to grow in holiness through this sacrament of unity and love. Remember that, though many we are one body because we share the one bread and one cup.

That is understood to include:

- Being regular in attending Sunday Mass
- Being a person of prayer, especially participating in Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament when possible
- Living a life that gives public witness to the ministry. While no one is "worthy", that is understood to mean being in a marriage recognized by the Church and not living in a way that is clearly counter to Church values.
- Being willing, at least on occasion, to minister Holy Communion to sick and shut-ins.

The next training session for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will be Monday, August 10th, at 7:00 PM. If you think you may be interested, or if you have questions, email (mpucke@stjulie.net) or call 863.1040. Fr. Mike

REMEMBERING ST. JULIE BILLIART IN YOUR WILL

Around the country "planned giving" or bequests have become more and more important to Catholic Parishes. It is a way to help assure the continuity of the ministries that have meant so much to you for so many years. The most helpful gift is one that is simply given to St. Julie Billiart Parish. On the other hand, sometimes people want to designate a particular work or ministry of the Parish, St. Vincent de Paul for example. If your intention is to support Catholic School education for members of St. Julie Billiart Parish how you word your intention is important. Our commitment to Catholic School education continues, though in a different arrangement. So, if your intention is to support Catholic School education for members of St. Julie Billiart Parish, please designate "for support of Catholic School education of St. Julie Billiart parishioners."
