ANNUAL MISSIONARY VISIT APRIL 24-25

You know that each year every parish in the Archdiocese hosts a visiting missionary. Bishop Eduardo Carmona, Bishop of the Diocese of Puerto Escondido, Oaxaca will be with us at Masses the weekend of April 24-25. Easter is a perfect time to welcome our missionary this year. The Easter readings, especially from the Acts of the Apostles, remind us that the Church is, by its essence, MISSIONARY. The Holy Spirit animates us to take the Good News to the whole world. The second collection taken up each Mass allows us to participate in that.

The Diocese of Puerto Escondido was established just over six years ago, January 7, 2004. Bishop Carmona was ordained its first bishop that same day. As with anything "newly born" there is both great excitement and significant need there. The Diocese is located along the Pacific Coast in the South of Mexico, about 250 miles from Acapulco. It takes in the entire coast of the State of Oaxaca, over 5405 square miles. Its population of almost a half million inhabitants, live both on the coast and in the costal mountains. This population is composed of indigenous peoples (40 percent), peoples of African descent (15 percent), and mixed race (45 percent).

The region, itself, is marked by poverty and lack of development, both economic and educational. But, at the same time, its people possess rich ancient cultural and human values. They have a strong innate religiosity that is in much need of evangelization.

The Diocese is made up of twenty-nine very large parishes, thirty-five priests (both diocesan and other), and fifty-one women religious. There is a total of twenty-nine seminarians at various levels of formation.

Being a new diocese permits them to organize themselves simply and efficiently. There is a diocesan Pastoral Plan organized by fourteen diocesan commissions each with its own programs. Each of the six deaneries has its own school of formation for pastoral workers, with its own teachers, students, calendars etc.

Being a new diocese means they have to create their own physical infrastructure as well. An important dimension is the Cathedral. The people give enormous importance to church buildings. To say it simply, for them having a chapel is as important as a school or health center. That is why they definitely want a cathedral. So they are working hard, with raffles, collections, fund raisers. In addition, they are constructing a Diocesan Family Life Center. Since as a Diocese it is urgent to strengthen the family, so mistreated in that environment (single mothers, very young, domestic violence, machismo, migration, etc.)

The second collection the weekend of April 24-25 will allow you to be part of this young, exciting, and growing diocese.

REMEMBERING ST. JULIE BILLIART IN YOUR WILL

Around the country "planned giving" or bequests have become more and more important to Catholic Parishes. It is a way to help assure the continuity of the ministries that have meant so much to you for so many years. The most helpful gift is one that is simply given to St. Julie Billiart Parish. On the other hand, sometimes people want to designate a particular work or ministry of the Parish, St. Vincent de Paul for example. If your intention is to support Catholic School education for members of St. Julie Billiart Parish how you word your intention is important. Our commitment to Catholic School education continues, though in a different arrangement. So, if your intention is to support Catholic School education for members of St. Julie Billiart Parish, please designate "for support of Catholic School education of St. Julie Billiart parishioners."
